THE RED LETTERS

The Parable of the Sower

8 After this, Jesus traveled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom

My observation from Conferences: God is on the move.

Chronicles of Narnia: Aslan is on the move.

Today's Title: A Moving God

It is said God is unmovable and in certain ways He is, but what if He is waiting for us to move with Him?

2 Chronicles 7:14 (Page 312) if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

Luke 13:1-8 (Page 738) God is saying: I want to move those who are stuck.

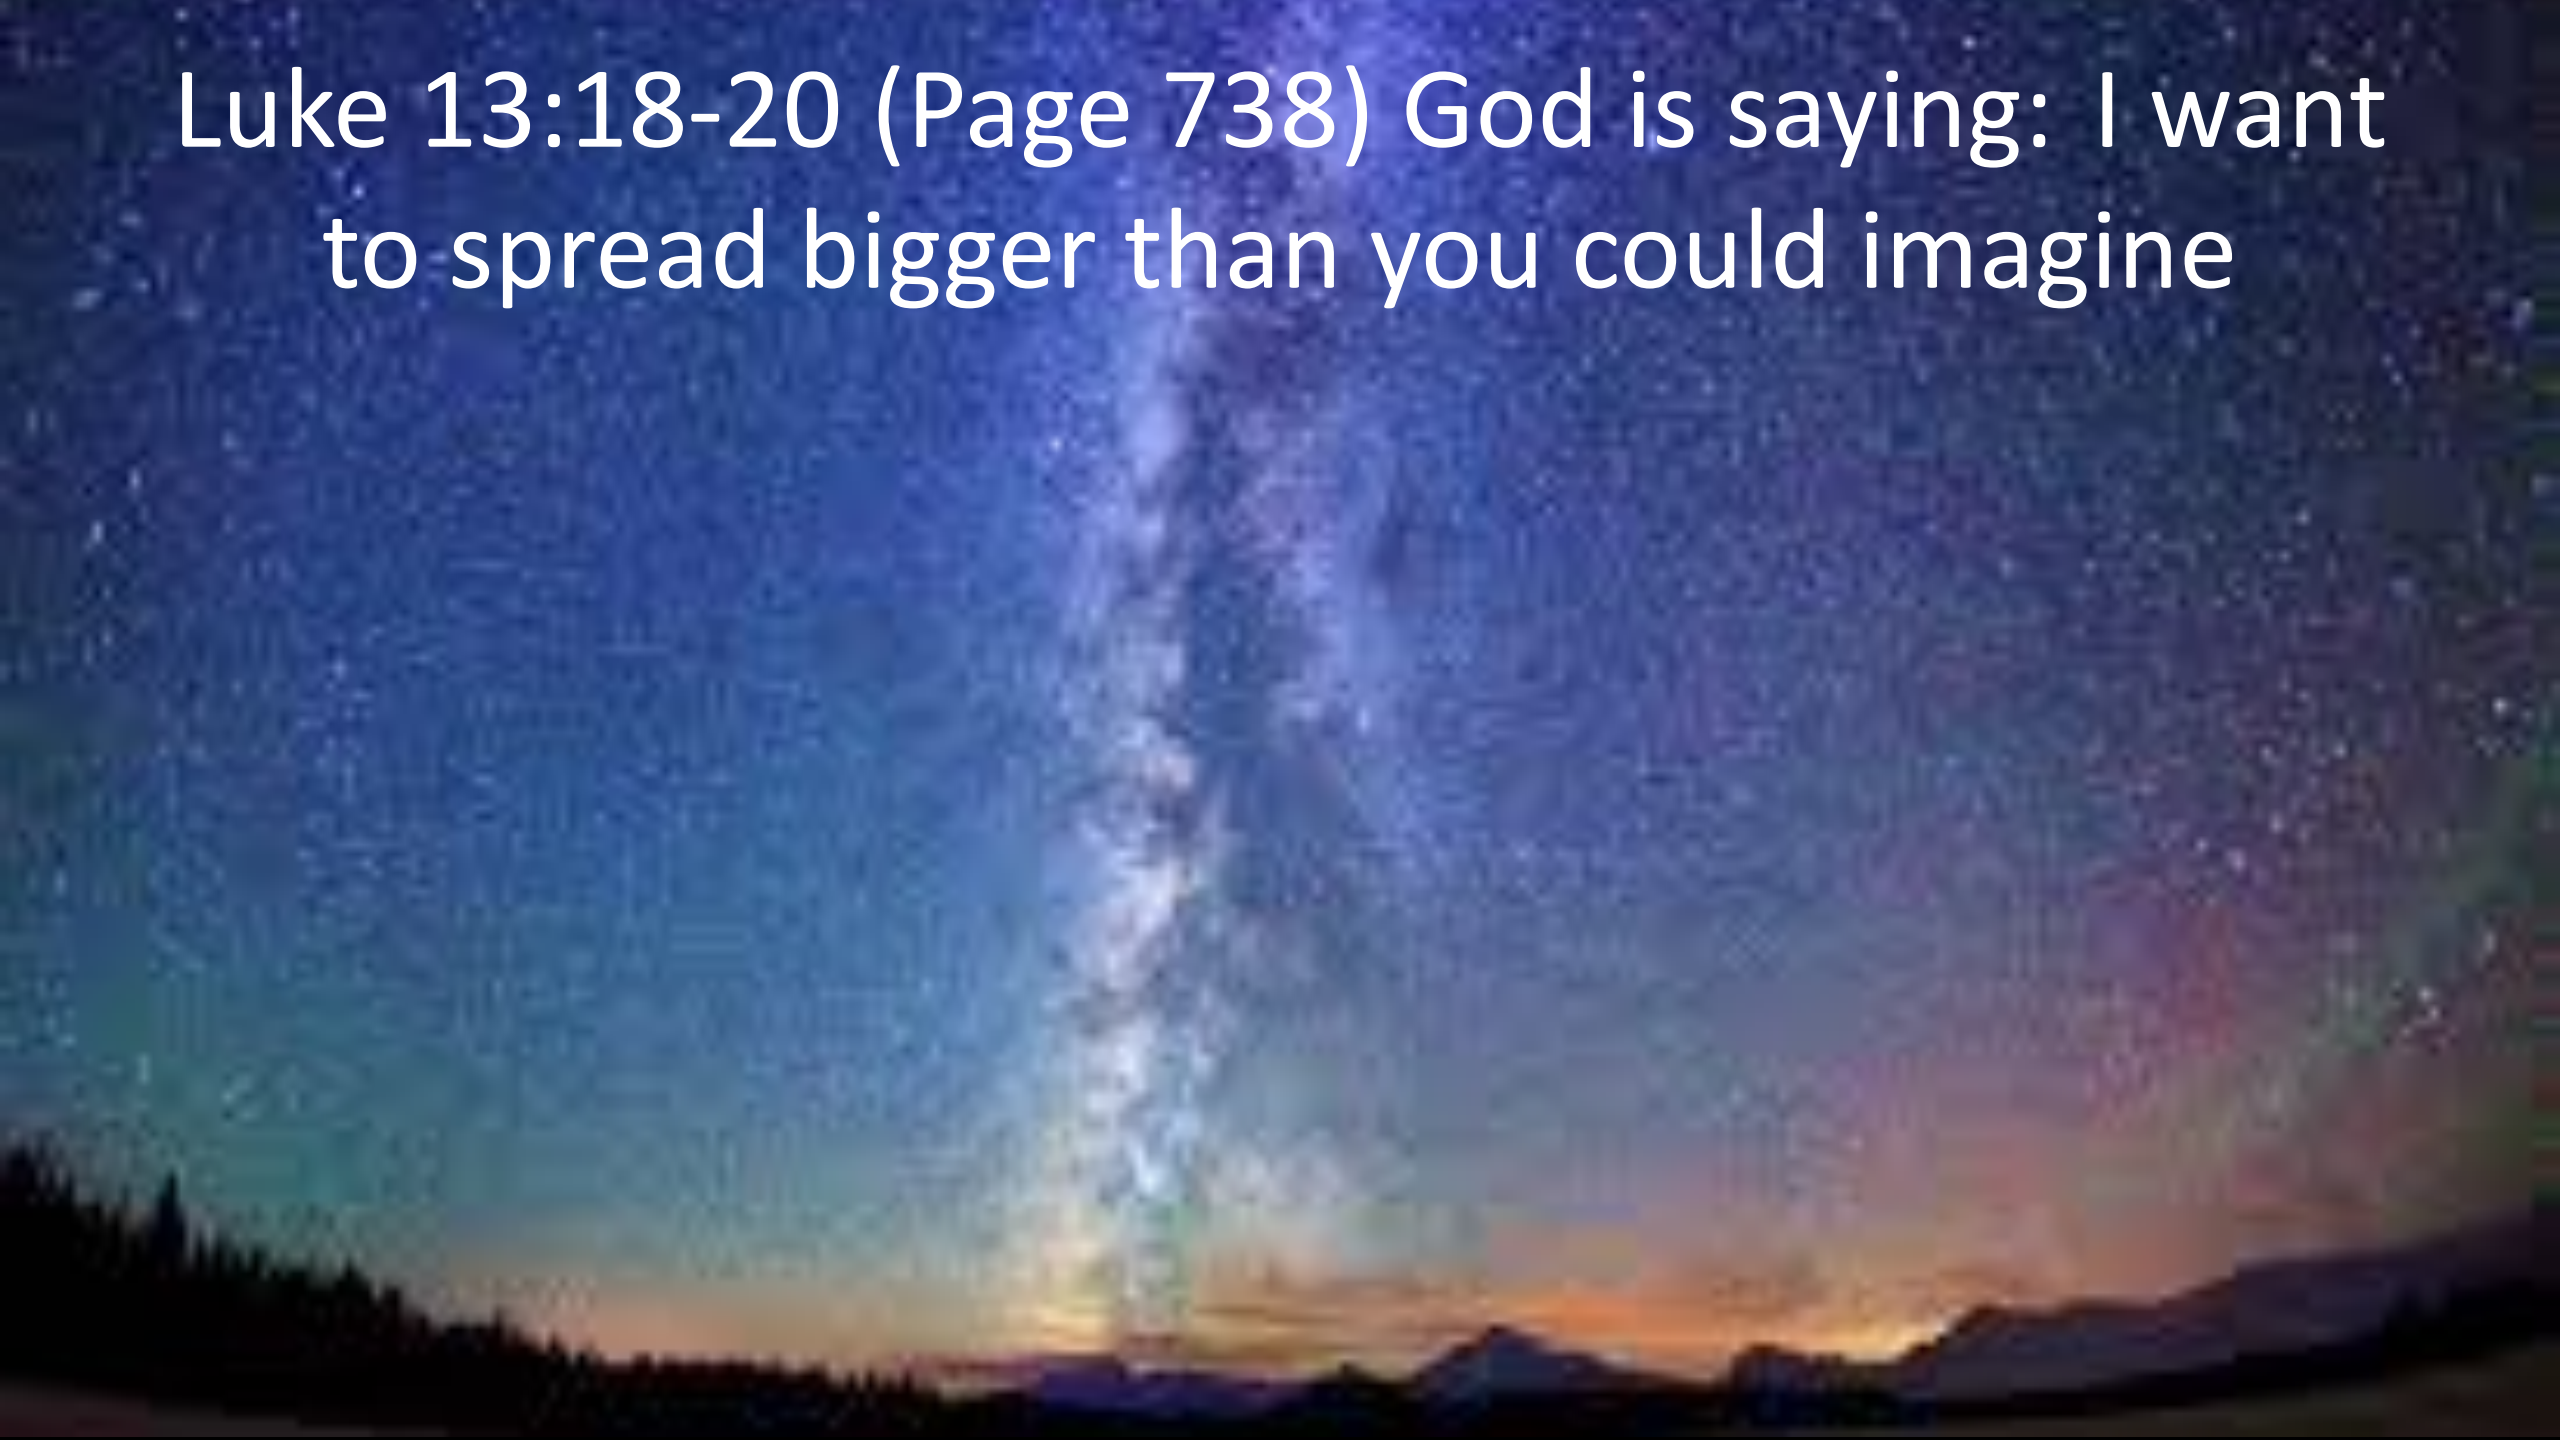

Romans 5:8 (Page 798) But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Luke 13:10-17 (Page 738) God is saying: I want to move in ways you would not expect

Ephesians 3:20 (Page 828) Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us

Luke 13:18-20 (Page 738) God is saying: I want to spread bigger than you could imagine

Isaiah 55:8-9 (Page 524) “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,” declares the Lord. “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

Do you feel stuck?

Is God asking you to turn to him?

Is he asking you to move?

Is He asking you to trust him in bigger ways?
In ways that are bigger than you than you can think?

Is He wanting to show you how big he can grow? In you? Through you? And around you?

Talk to Him:
Ask him anything.

Listen to Him
answer.
